

PSHR
Performance Shagya-Arabian Registry

HIGH POINT RIDER and VERSATILITY HORSE AWARDS PROGRAM RULES

High Point Senior Rider & High Point Junior Rider

In appreciation for participating in the PShR Achievement Awards Program, the PShR will award a High Point Senior and High Point Junior Rider every year. Points will be compiled based on placings from all the PShR Awards Programs.

PSHR Versatility Horse Award

To recognize PShR horses exemplifying the intelligence, hardiness, athleticism and connection with their rider, all qualities selectively bred for over two centuries, the PShR will annually award the “PSHR Versatility Horse of the Year.” All horses nominated in the PShR Awards Programs and competing in any three (3) categories are eligible for the award. Points will be based on the total of highest placings in three (3) of the categories below.

High Point Senior & Junior Rider and Versatility Horse Point Table

Points per placing in categories	End of year PShR Senior and Junior placing in Competitive Driving, Competitive Riding, Dressage, Endurance, Eventing, Sport Horse In-Hand, Limited Distance, Hunter/Jumper disciplines	Shagya Ambassador Senior and Shagya Ambassador Junior.
10	First place in a category	Most hours per division
9	Second place in a category	Second most hours per division
8	Third place in a category	Third most hours per division
7	Fourth place in a category	Fourth most hours per division
6	Fifth place in a category	Fifth most hours per division
5	Sixth place in a category	Sixth most hours per division
1	Did not place but competed in a category	Participated in a division