

PShR Shagya-Arabian Stallion Studbooks

| Studbook Category | ISG Summary of RZBO Studbook Minimum requirements that must be met by any ISG member association | PShR Summary of ZBO Studbooks |
|--|---|---|
| Stallion-Book I | In the 4th generation seven (7) or more ancestors must be Shagya-Araber. The stallion must receive a minimum average score of seven (7) at an inspection given by a commission. To be permanently recorded in Stallion Book I a Stallion Performance Test (according to the performance rules & regulations) must be successfully completed within a pre-defined timeframe. | In the 4th generation seven (7) or more ancestors must be Shagya-Araber. The stallion must receive a minimum average score of seven (7) at an inspection given by a commission. To be permanently recorded in Stallion Book I a Stallion Performance Test (according to the performance rules & regulations) must be successfully completed within a pre-defined timeframe. Stallions must stand for a veterinary evaluation at an inspection site. Special allowance for stallions used for Shagya-Arabian breeding prior to 2012 in the USA/Canada. Special allowance for stallions with a Purebred Arabian parent prior to 2010 to remain in Book I. |
| Appendix of the Stallion-Book I (Book IA) | In the 4th generation there are less than seven (7) ancestors are Shagya-Araber Or Purebred Arabians, And remaining requirements as above from in Stallion-Book I | In the 4th generation there are less than seven (7) ancestors are Shagya-Araber Or Purebred Arabians, And remaining requirements as above in Stallion-Book I |
| Stallion-Book II | In the 4th generation at least seven (7) or more ancestors must be Shagya-Araber, The stallion received a minimum average score below seven (7) at an inspection given by a commission and/or Stallion Performance Test is not completed/passed | In the 4th generation at least seven (7) or more ancestors must be Shagya-Araber, The stallion received a minimum average score below seven (7) at an inspection given by a commission And/or Stallion Performance Test is not completed/passed within three years of his inspection date And/or has more than three progeny before completing performance testing |
| Appendix of the Stallion-Book II (Book IIA) | In the 4th generation less than seven (7) ancestors are Shagya-Araber Or Purebred Arabians, And remaining requirements as above from the Stallion-Book II | In the 4th generation less than seven (7) ancestors are Shagya-Araber Or Purebred Arabians, And remaining requirements as above in Stallion-Book II |